- New students should be registered within 6 weeks of starting the course.
- Late examination and assignment registration fees of £10.00 per entry will apply after the published date has expired.
- All payment must be received by CTH prior to each exam session.
- Examination papers taken must be sent back to CTH immediately (within 48 hours of sitting the exam) and certainly by the end of the exam week.
- Exam papers not returned to CTH within 48 hours of the last exam taken may miss the result declaration date and transferred to the next assessment series, at a cost to the Centre.
- It is expected January exams/assignments which were unsuccessful would be re-taken or resubmitted in June, likewise March would be retaken in September and so forth, hence the overlap of dates between sessions.

Disclaimer: The schedule for an examination and assessment session may occasionally be subject to change up to 3 months prior to the start of a particular session. Centres and students should always refer to the latest schedule available from CTH for confirmation of a particular session schedule.
